July 24, 2011 THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

All hands onboard this week as we count-down to our summer social. Let's hope the weather is good for us on our social day!

Special thanks to the great bunch of folks who came and helped roll dumplings last Monday: Zach and Rachel Goedde, Tom Folz, Kendra Blankenberger, Mag Eickhoff, Jeanne Schumate, Sharon Vogler, Norma Duncan, Henriette Happe, Sandy Raben, Kathy Hall, Ruby manger, Marge Aydt, Donna Niemeier, Jean Duncan, Richard and Imogene Baehl, Candy Bjutler and Sylvia Reckelhoff. It was good to see the great spirit of cooperation that existed in this gathering!

This week we put out the call for people to come and help set up the stands, get the gym and cafeteria ready, and prepare all the food. We don't assign anyone at these jobs, because we hope and need everyone to offer whatever time they have to help out.

Summer socials have lots of memories for me—not only from the years I have been a priest, but even before that growing up at Precious Blood Parish in Jasper. My Mom and Dad were intimately involved with all the preparations for our parish social. When something was going on with regards to our parish social, they were there to help out, and all of us kids went along to help. I'm not sure we ever were asked if we wanted to help, it was just what we did.

What our parents taught us, without saying it, was that service to the church was important. Indeed, helping out in this parish activity was given a place of honor in our family.

That's a lesson I see other parents here in our parish teaching their children as we prepare for our social. They are such an inspiration for all of us to give service to our parish an honored place in our lives.

Fr. Gene Schroeder

P.S. Be sure to invite your friends and neighbors to come and joins us at our social next Sunday!

SUNDAY, JULY 31: SOUP KITCHEN SUNDAY

Sunday, July 31st is our Sunday to help prepare the meal for the Soup Kitchen at St. John Church—and yes, that's the same day as our social. We know it's a stretch to try to do two big things on the same day, but maybe there are a few people who can help. If you can help, contact the parish office (963-3273) or Brad Ruminer (963-6987).

NEEDED FOR OUR CHICKEN DINNER. Bring your vegetables (cabbage, peppers, onions,
