JULY 4, 2010 FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

It's July and that means our summer social is coming soon. Thanks to all who have returned their raffle tickets. Be sure to check the inside of the bulletin for a complete list of ways you can help to ensure the success of our social. By this time you should have received your copy of The Carpenter. In it is a complete list of workers for each of the booths. Be sure to check it out. If your name is not on any list, let me know, because there are a number of places we need some additional help.

Mark your calendar for our dumpling making day (Monday, July 12th beginning at 7 am) Many hands make the work go quick!

Fr. Gene Schroeder

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame, with conquering limbs astride from land to land -
-Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand

a mighty woman,
with a torch
whose flame
is the imprisoned
lightning,
and her name,
Mother of Exiles.

From her beacon hand
glows world-wide welcome;
her mild eyes command
the air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.

'Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!' cries she,

With silent lips.

'Give me your
tired, your poor,
your huddled
masses yearning to breathe free,
the wretched refuse of your teeming shore.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-test to me- I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

Life as Sacred Journey

by David Thomas

"It's a great day to go to the beach." It was summertime and little Sean announced this fact to the rest of the family at breakfast on Saturday. Once a year, the McCarthy's loaded up the family car with all they needed and off they went to enjoy one of God's great creations. The beach!

Before they left home, however, they had to get all the stuff they needed. First, they had to find that inflatable yellow raft with the small leak. Then they had to fill the cooler with drinks and ice. Time began to pass. The twins each wanted to wear a different color bathing suit. Mom had to find the bow with last year's swimsuits. She couldn't remember where it was. It was not until noon that they finally were on the road. When they could see the water in the distance, it was close to mid-afternoon. And they also noticed the clouds, dark rain clouds. If only they had left earlier for the beach.

Today's gospel describes Jesus sending new disciples out into the world. They were told to travel lightly, get to their destination quickly and tell the people what's in their hearts. They should trust in God's assistance. A certain urgency goes with life in the New Creation. While it is important to prepare ourselves for its life, there's the danger of over-preparation. We can spend too much energy in just getting ready. Time is short and precious. So is life. Trust the moment of your life and God's presence in that moment. And be sure to move on if that's what God wants of you.

STEWARDSHIP: *The Lord's Way

"The harvest is rich," Jesus tells the seventy-two in today's Gospel, "but the workers are few." The situation is the same today. How can I help with God's harvest? Am I called into the field? Am I one who could provide food or shelter or wages to those who toil in the fields of the Lord?

THANK YOU....for your gracious welcome and receptiveness to stories of the S.C.N. missions. It was a joy for me to share the ministries of our sisters with you and a privilege to be with you in your beautiful church. The choice of hymns, the music and wholehearted participation by the congregation greatly enhanced our Eucharistic celebration.

Thank you for your prayers and support of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth in or efforts to bring Christ's love to our sisters and brothers, especially the poor and oppressed. May Christ bless all of you with an abundant share in His peace and love. Sr. Marilyn Shea, S.C.N.
