August 21, 2011 THE TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

Several people have asked: "When are you moving into the new house?" Well, I'm happy to tell you that we're getting really close to moving day. As I write this letter we still have some painting to do in the basement and the hardwood floors need to have a final sanding and sealing. The consensus of the folks that have walked through the place recently is that the house looks wonderful. It really is a tribute to the fine craftsmanship of the people in our parish. It is a real showcase for the kind of work that members of our parish are capable of doing.

I hope to be able to move in by the beginning of September and at that time we'll have an open house after one of the weekend masses so you'll get a chance to see what has been done.

Several other people have asked about different things in the present rectory. There are things that people may want: kitchen cabinets, bathroom fixtures, door fixtures, and some extra appliances: a washer and dryer and stove are among them. We plan to offer these items as well as other things that people may want to people in the parish for a nominal contribution to our parish rummage sale. If you have an interest in particular items, let me know. After we have completed the move to the new rectory, you can come by the old rectory to see if there are things you may like. Whatever items are left will be given to our parish rummage sale.

Fr. Gene Schroeder

P.S. Don't forget about our Blood Drive next Sunday and our rummage sale in September.

Thanks also to the parish for honoring us on our golden wedding anniversary. We are truly blessed being parishioners of St. Joe. God's blessing to all.

STEWARDSHIP: The Lord's Way

In today's readings, St. Paul reminds the Romans—and us—that all things come from God: "For from Him and through Him and for Him all things are." Good stewards understand that all is gift and share generously the gifts of time, talent, and treasure with which they've been blessed.
